From the MD's Desk

This October, I would like to extend my heartfelt appreciation to our Housekeeping Team across all properties.

Your dedication, discipline, and eye for detail have truly set the benchmark for excellence. Be it maintaining spotless rooms, ensuring hygiene in common areas, or creating a welcoming atmosphere for our guests, your efforts often go unnoticed but never unvalued.

Housekeeping is the backbone of hospitality, and your commitment ensures that every guest who walks through our doors experiences comfort and care. I am proud of the standards you uphold and the consistency you bring to our brand.

Let us continue to work together in raising the bar for guest satisfaction and making Bergamont Hotels synonymous with warmth, cleanliness, and perfection.

With gratitude,
M. Nadarajan
Managing Director

Celebrating International Housekeeping Day at Bergamont Hotels

At Bergamont Hotels, we take pride in recognizing the dedication and hard work of our Housekeeping Team, who ensure that every guest enjoys a clean, comfortable, and memorable stay.

As part of International Housekeeping Day 2025, our properties organized special activities to honor their tireless efforts. Guests enthusiastically shared heartfelt appreciation for the spotless rooms and prompt service, making the celebration even more meaningful.

Adding to the excitement, a bed-making competition was held across the teams. The challenge showcased the speed, skill, and precision of our associates. We are proud to announce the winners:

 Ms. Maheshwari – Completed the task in 3 minutes 11 seconds, securing First Place.

 Mr. Satyam – Matched the winning time of 3 minutes 11 seconds, also securing First Place.

These achievements highlight the talent, discipline, and teamwork of our Housekeeping Department. Their commitment continues to inspire us every day.

 At Bergamont, we believe true hospitality begins with a clean room and a warm heart.
