Opening the door or lying on the bed with the curtains parted, one is looking out onto shrubs, flowers, bamboo shoots and hammocks. It is virtually as if the Chalet rooms are 'enclosed' within nature. It is a place one feels that one has come home to!

With a unique focus on locally-grown seasonal produce, the menu is not decided by the Chef, but dictated by the farmer.

Under the Neem offers books to read, cappuccinos to sip, 'live' chess to keep the mind alert, and a knitting basket to occupy yourself with while relaxing and soaking in the surroundings.
