This season, our approach goes deeper into how we source, prepare, and present what reaches your plate.

At Under The Neem, every ingredient is chosen with care. From how it is grown at Sabz Bagh to how it is handled in our kitchen, we remain mindful of its journey. The focus stays on freshness, seasonality, and preserving what the ingredient already holds.

Some dishes carry this thought more closely. Watermelon Unplugged is one of them. Created with a no-waste approach, it brings together every part of the fruit - from rind to seed, turning what is often overlooked into something complete.

The menu also opens itself to you. With our People's Pizza, the process becomes shared. The farmers guide what is in season, while you choose what speaks to you, and our chefs bring it together with their craft.

Nothing here is random. It is grown, selected and then carefully curated. The names may feel playful, but each one holds a story. Come, taste 'thoughtfulness' at Under The Neem.

The Nest

A space that becomes what you need it to be

Set just above Under The Neem, The Nest is shaped by light, air, and you.

Some days, it holds space for quiet work. On others, for conversations, workshops, or gatherings that bring people closer.

What it can hold?

- Workshops, sessions, and shared learning
- Intimate gatherings of friends and family
- Corporate meetings and boardroom conversations
- Creative expressions; from music to art

Or simply, whatever you want it to be

*Nothing here is fixed. You can work, create, host, or simply be.
The Nest takes the form you give and it stays with you long after.*

The Breakfast Club

8:30 am to 10:30 am, everyday day

Mornings at Under The Neem begin softly. The kind where you don't have to rush, and the day unfolds at its own pace.

The Breakfast Club is less about a fixed spread and more about a way to begin. You can move between a thoughtfully prepared buffet or dishes made just for you; depending on how the morning finds you.

Reclaim your day with a breakfast that evolves. Thoughtfully curated and ever-changing, no two mornings feel quite the same... giving you a reason to return, again and again.

Everything is designed to feel easy, nourishing, and just right for the hour.

Because some mornings deserve a better start.
