DAY 2

1) Tripura Sundari Temple

It is considered to be one of the 51 Shakti Peethas. This pithasthan is also known as Kurma Pith because the shape of the temple premises resembles that of "Kurma" namely tortoise. The temple structure appears to be a modified Buddhist Stupa at the first look.

The temple faces the west and the main entrance of the temple is also in the west though there is a narrow entrance in the north. Though the influence of medieval Bengal "Char Chaala" (4 slanted roof) temple architecture is clearly visible, such a blend is unique to this place and Tripura could distinctly claim this as its own Architectural style. The temple consists of a square type sanctum of the typical Bengali hut type structure with a conical dome. In the eastern side of the temple there lies Kalyan Sagar (a lake) where very big fishes and tortoises co habitat undisturbed. It is popularly known as the Temple of Tripura Sundari or Matabari.

2) From there to LSR for Neermahal (Known as 'lake palace' of Tripura, Neer-Mahal was constructed as a summer residence. It was Maharaja Bir Bikram Manikya Bahadur's idea to build a palace in the beautiful Rudrasagar lake and in 1921 he accredited the British company Martin and Burns to construct the palace for him.)

3) Boat ride in Rudra Sagar for Neermahal with Refreshments.

4) Lunch at LSR (on direct payment)

5) Return to HPTA

Feeling Hungry!!! come back to hotel and enjoy the taste of Local cuisine like Gudok, Wahan Mosdeng, Chakhwi, Bangwi or choose from wide array of choice from our International Menu at the Restaurant. Have a power nap in the cozy bed of the rooms and Fit out in the evening.

Interactive Cooking Session with Cheff followed by 5 Star Dinner Buffet or Specially Curated Chef's Special. (1930Hrs To 2300Hrs)

Menu 15% Discount on A-la-carte & Soft Drinks
