INSIDER TRADING POLICY

The IRQ shall ensure that information shared with analysts and research personnel is not UPSI. The IRO shall be responsible for overseeing and coordinating disclosure of UPSI to analysts, shareholders and media, and educating Employees on disclosure policies and procedures.

The IRQ shall also ensure that when interacting with the media and the external public, guidelines for disclosure of UPSI are complied with.

(b) MATERIAL NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION OR UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION (UPSI):

Information should be regarded as "material" AND "price sensitive" if there is a substantial likelihood that a reasonable investor would consider it important in deciding to buy, sell, or hold a security or where the fact is likely to have a significant effect on the market price of the security. Either positive or negative information may be material. Information is "nonpublic" or "Unpublished" until it has been widely disseminated to the public (through, for example, a filing with the NSE, BSE, DSE, press conference or release) or is accessible to the public on a non-discriminatory basis and the public has had a chance to absorb and evaluate it. Unless you have seen material information publicly disseminated, you should assume the information is nonpublic.

Financial information is particularly sensitive. For example, non-public information about the results of the Company's operations for even a portion of a quarter or the portion of the business might be material in helping an analyst predict the Company's financial results for the quarter. Other examples of information that would normally be regarded as "material" include the following, although the list is not exhaustive:

- i. financial results, financial condition, projections or forecasts;
- ii. Known but unannounced future earnings or losses;
- iii. Significant corporate events, such as a pending or proposed acquisition or joint venture;
- iv. Plans to offer new services or features or significant service defects;
- v. Significant developments involving business relationships with customers, suppliers or other business partners;
- vi. The status of the Company's progress toward achieving significant goals;

- vii. New investments or financings or developments regarding investments or financings;
- viii. Changes in auditors or auditor notification that the issuer may no longer rely on an audit report;
- ix. Events regarding the Company's securities (such as buy-back of Company's own securities plans, stock splits or changes in dividends, changes to the rights of securityholders, public or private sales of additional securities or information related to any additional funding);
- x. Bankruptcies, receiverships or financial liquidity problems;
- xi. Pricing changes;
- xii. developments with respect to outstanding litigation, investigations or regulatory matters; or
- xiii. Known but unannounced changes in the members of the Board of Directors, the key managerial personnel or senior management.

When in doubt, you should assume that the information is material and nonpublic. If you have any questions as to whether information should be considered "material" or "nonpublic," please consult the Compliance Officer.
