Visakha Explored

Where the Hills Meet the Sea

Favourably nestled between the Bay of Bengal and the Eastern Ghats, Visakhapatnam (also known as Vizag) is a vibrant coastal hub where beaches, temples, and heritage, coexist with modern innovation. From long golden shores to ancient Buddhist trails and hilltop vistas, Vizag seamlessly blends tradition, nature, and new-age energy.

Seaside Adventure

Ramakrishna Beach

The heart of Vizag's coastline where sunrise joggers, evening strollers, and street food lovers come together. The Kali Temple, nearby museums, and the sea breeze complete the experience.

Fact: Try Muri Mixture, Butta Corn, and Araku coffee as you stroll by the beach.

Rushikonda Beach

Golden sands stretch into turquoise waters, creating a haven for adventure. From swimming and surfing to parasailing and jet skiing, it's the perfect mix of thrill and calm.

Fact: One of India's first beaches to earn the Blue Flag certification.

Bheemili Beach

Once a bustling Dutch port, Bheemili still echoes with traces of its trading past. Quiet shores, colonial ruins, and old churches, line this historic coastal town.

Fact: The shoreline lit up with bioluminescent waves in 2023, a rare natural phenomenon.

Nature & Heritage

The Indira Gandhi Zoological Park

This 625-acre zoo accommodates a wide variety of exotic mammals, birds, and reptiles, including the majestic white tigers that are a major attraction for visitors.

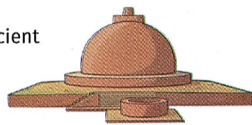

Fact: One of India's few zoos built entirely within a natural valley.

Thotlakonda

A 3rd Century BC Buddhist site linked to ancient maritime trade, Thotlakonda offers panoramic views of the Bay of Bengal and a glimpse into Vizag's spiritual past.

Fact: Thotlakonda Beach, across the hill, features a natural arch rock formation estimated to be 10,000 years old.

Divine Connection

Simhachalam Temple

An 11th Century hilltop shrine dedicated to Varaha Lakshmi Narasimha, where Lord Vishnu is worshipped in a rare combined form of Varaha and Narasimha. The temple's intricate carvings and gold-plated sanctum add to its grandeur, while the main idol remains covered in sandalwood paste year-round.

Fact: The deity is revealed only once a year during Chandanotsavam.

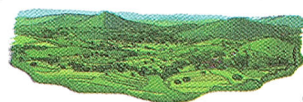

Around Araku

Araku Valley

At 600 meters above sea level, Araku is a scenic valley ringed by the Eastern Ghats. It's known for coffee plantations, waterfalls, tribal culture and breathtaking views.

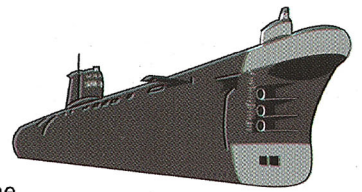

Experience: Take the Vistadome train through tunnels and misty hills.
Best time to visit: October to March

Submarine Museum

The INS Kursura Submarine Museum is South Asia's first and the world's second submarine museum. INS Kursura served in the historic Indo-Pakistani War of 1971 and numerous other naval operations.

Experience: Visit the neighbouring Aircraft, Sea Harrier, and Helicopter museums along the beach.

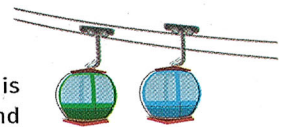

Vantage Points

Kailasagiri Ropeway

The most exciting way to reach Kailasagiri is by ropeway. Fibre-glass cabins going up and down the 375-meter-long rope provide an unforgettable bird's-eye view of the sea and the city.

Fact: India's first sea-facing passenger ropeway.

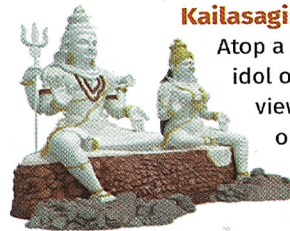

Kailasagiri

Atop a hillock, a 40-foot-tall Shiva-Parvathi idol overlooks the city. It has panoramic viewpoints, a ropeway, and a toy train and one can also reach via a long stairway.

A recent addition is the Vizag Glass Skywalk. Kailasagiri is also home to the Telugu Heritage Museum.

Fact: Vizag Glass Skywalk is India's longest cantilever bridge stretching 55 metres at 265 metres above sea level.

Borra Caves

Million-year-old limestone caves located 705 meters above sea level. Inside, nature has carved awe-inspiring rock formations.

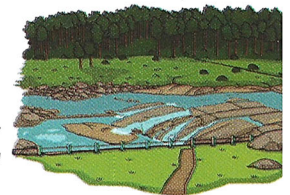

Fact: A Shiva Lingam-shaped stalagmite makes this both a spiritual and geological wonder.

Chaparai Waterfalls

Just 15 km from Araku, this natural rock stream flows through lush forests. A perfect picnic and play spot for families.

Fact: Its scenic beauty made it a popular Telugu film shooting location.

Ananthagiri Hills

A calm hill station en route to Araku, covered in coffee plantations and forest trails.

APTDC cottages offer serene valley views.

Fact: One of India's oldest coffee-growing regions, dating to the British era.

Araku Coffee Museum

A one-of-its-kind space celebrating Araku's world-famous coffee. Explore its journey from bean to brew, and sample fresh local blends.

Experience: Try their handcrafted chocolates and signature cold brews.

Lambasingi

The "Kashmir of Andhra Pradesh," known for its misty mornings and near-zero winters. Tea and apple farms dot the hillside.

Fact: Try strawberry picking or sunrise treks through the fog.
