

FOOD

ROOTED, YET REIMAGINED.

Our journey with Vietnamese food is one of reverence — for its honesty, quiet complexity, and deep ties to land and memory.

With this menu, we return to roots while embracing reinterpretation. Clean broths, vibrant herbs, and thoughtful textures bring familiar flavors anew, spotlight lesser-known dishes, and invite sharing.

Each plate is a dialogue between past and present, soul and simplicity — not just new offerings, but a renewal of purpose.
Welcome back to the table.

"THE BOWL THAT CHANGED EVERYTHING"

I first tasted real Vietnamese pho in Hoi An — a quiet street, early morning, steam rising from a street-side pot. One sip of that broth and something shifted. It wasn't just flavor; it was feeling. Comforting. Honest. A story in a bowl.

Since then, I've walked Vietnam's markets, cooked in humble kitchens, and shared meals that felt like family. Inspired by Chef Ms. Vy of Morning Glory, I came to see Vietnamese food as both heritage and evolving art.

This menu brings those moments to you — dishes that echo Saigon's streets, the Mekong's flavors, and Hoi An's spirit, reimagined with global curiosity and India's bold palate.
Not tradition revived, but cuisine evolved — with fresh energy, playful textures, and a contemporary voice. I hope it makes you feel what I felt that morning in Hoi An: connected, comforted, and curious.
